1. Between 0800 and 1500 on 5 November, 48 MiG-15s and Yak-11s were parked at Wiener Neustadt airfield, but there was no air activity. There was a 7/10 overcast at an altitude of about 1,500 meters, westerly wind of about 10 km/h, good visibility across the field, Schneeberg in haze. 25X1
2. The flight control station was guarded by a sentry wearing black-bordered blue epaulets. Sedan van-like truck truck and all of them with drivers wearing black-bordered blue epaulets were seen at the flight control station. Personnel wearing black-bordered blue epaulets were seen in the area of the eastern garage installation. Four 2 trucks and 3 van-like trucks were parked under the lean-to-roofs. One mobile flight control station, 2 trucks and 1 tank truck were parked in the yard of the installation. The motor vehicle hangar could not be observed. The southern AA gun emplacement was occupied by about 6 x 37-mm AA guns. Personnel were seen in the area of the AA bunkers. Trucks weapon carrier and motor-cycle all of them with drivers wearing black-bordered blue epaulets were seen at the western flight control station. Three railroad tank cars were seen on the spur track leading to the, presumably underground, tank dump. Six trucks were parked under the lean-to-roofs of the northern temporary buildings. Trucks and van-like trucks occasionally proceeded across the field in the direction of the flight control station. The storage shed in the area of the pyrotechnics plant was guarded by a sentry wearing black-bordered blue epaulets. Used auxiliary fuel tanks were piled up in front of the shed. One small crane and 3 "van-like" crates but no aircraft were seen northeast of the flight control station. The installation, assumed to be a VHF D/F station, with a horizontal cross antenna northwest of the Adcock D/F station had a bulge at the intersection of the dipole supports. 25X1
3. Three MiG-15s were parked in the hangar of the aircraft repair shop Theresienfeld. Eighteen gray crates, 3 trucks and 1 small crane were seen in front of the hangar. Three trucks and 4 van-like trucks were seen in the parking lot of the repair shop. 25X1
4. The Artillerie Kaserne in Wiener Neustadt was guarded by a sentry wearing black-bordered blue epaulets. Three trucks and 1 sedan were parked in the yard of the installation. Jeep driving school truck
